Intended Outcome

Every company is headed by a board, which assumes responsibility for the company's leadership and is collectively responsible for meeting the objectives and goals of the company.

Practice 1.1

The board should set the company's strategic aims, ensure that the necessary resources are in place for the company to meet its objectives and review management performance. The board should set the company's values and standards, and ensure that its obligations to its shareholders and other stakeholders are understood and met.

A 11 .1	A 1. 1
Application	: Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	: The Board sets the strategic direction of the Group and provides effective leadership through oversight of Management and monitoring the performance in the Group.
	The roles and responsibilities of the Board are set out in the Board Charter which is published on the Company's website at www.jayatiasa.net . The key responsibilities of the Board include:
	 i. Formulating strategic plans and policies to ensure that they support long-term value creation through good environment, social and governance ("ESG") practices underpinning sustainability; ii. Overseeing the conduct of the Group's businesses; iii. Ensuring effective risk management and internal control; and iv. Reviewing and approving key matters such as financial results, investments and divestments, acquisitions and disposals, and major capital expenditures. The Board has established the Audit Committee, Nomination Committee, Remuneration Committee and Sustainability Committee to assist in fulfilling its ongoing oversight and stewardship role. The Board Committees have the authority to examine specific issues within their respective terms of reference approved by the Board. The Chairman of the respective Board Committees reports to the Board with their recommendations. The ultimate responsibility for decision making, however, lies with the Board.
	As the leader of the management, the Chief Executive Officer, who is supported by the Executive Directors and the Senior Management Team, is responsible for the effective implementation of the strategic plans and policies established by the Board, and oversees the day-to-day operations and business of the Group.

Practice 5.1

The Nomination Committee should ensure that the composition of the board is refreshed periodically. The tenure of each director should be reviewed by the Nomination Committee and annual re-election of a director should be contingent on satisfactory evaluation of the director's performance and contribution to the board.

Application :	Applied
Explanation on : application of the practice	The Nomination Committee ("NC") evaluates the effectiveness of the Board as a whole, Board Committees and individual Director annually. On 26 August 2022, the NC evaluated the Board mix and composition as well as tenure of individual Director with due regard to Director's performance and contribution to the Board in respect of financial year 2022. The results of this evaluation concluded that the Board, Board Committees and individual Director possess the relevant skill sets, and had effectively discharged their stewardship responsibilities to meet the company's needs. The NC recommended that the retiring directors, namely Tiong Chiong Hee, Dato' Wong Lee Yun and Yong Voon Kar should be re-elected. The Board was satisfied with the favourable evaluation of the performance and contributions of the directors and endorsed the re- election of the retiring directors as recommended by the NC.

Application :	Departure
Explanation on : application of the practice
Explanation for : departure	During the financial year, the Board comprised 8 Directors, 3 Executive Directors and 5 Non-Executive Directors. 3 of the 5 Non-Executive Directors were Independent Non-Executive Directors ("Independent Directors") which constituted 37.5% of the Board composition. MCCG recommended practice of having at least half of the Board to comprise independent directors has not been met. However, the Company had complied with the Main Market Listing Requirements of Bursa Securities which requires at least 2 or 1/3, whichever is higher, of Board members to be Independent Directors.
	The Company has in place appropriate governance structures and internal controls necessary to safeguard the assets of the Group and protect shareholder value. Sufficient oversight is provided by the Audit, Remuneration and Nomination Committees, all of which are chaired by Independent Directors.
	The Board is of the view that the current Independent Directors have the experience and business acumen to provide the check and balance and protect the interest of shareholders, in particular the minority shareholders.

The tenure of an independent director does not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine years. Upon completion of the nine years, an independent director may continue to serve on the board as a non-independent director.

If the board intends to retain an independent director beyond nine years, it should provide justification and seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	Currently, one (1) Independent Director Dato' Wong Lee Yun had served for a cumulative period of more than nine (9) years.
		Following an assessment conducted by the Nomination Committee on 26 August 2022, the Board was of the view that the independence of Dato' Wong Lee Yun remains unimpaired. Her judgment in business dealings of the Group is not influenced by the interest of other Directors and substantial shareholders.
		With the qualification, experience and personal traits, particularly on integrity and objectivity possessed by Dato' Wong Lee Yun, the Board believes that she will continue to discharge her duties and responsibilities as an Independent Director towards meeting the Company's need.
		Accordingly, the Board recommended retaining her as an Independent Director up to 31 May 2023 subject to shareholders' approval at the forthcoming AGM of the Company.
		Key justifications for retaining her are disclosed in the Notice of the AGM in the Company's Annual Report 2022.
		However, the single tier shareholders' approval will be sought for the retention of Dato' Wong Lee Yun instead of the two tier voting process.
		The Board will seek shareholders' approval at the forthcoming AGM for the continuing of Dato' Wong Lee Yun as Independent Director up to 31 May 2023 by ordinary resolution via the usual single tier voting process. This process allows shareholders to provide the relevant sounding to the Board on the Independent Director who has served beyond the ninth (9 th) year.

Practice 5.5

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Directors appointed should be able to devote the required time to serve the board effectively. The board should consider the existing board positions held by a director, including on boards of non-listed companies. Any appointment that may cast doubt on the integrity and governance of the company should be avoided.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice		The Board is committed to ensuring that the Directors of the Company possess a broad balance of skills, independence, age diversity (including gender diversity) and sufficient time to devote to the role. The Nomination Committee ("NC"), in making its recommendation on potential candidates for new appointment and those Directors who retire by rotation and offer themselves for re-election at Annual General Meeting will consider suitability of the individual based on the criteria set out in the Directors' Fit and Proper Policy in line with Paragraph 2.20A of Listing Requirements including the following: i. Character and integrity; ii. Experience and competence; iii. Time availability with due regards to number of directorship (including directorship on Board of non-listed companies outside the Group) and other external obligations which may affect Director's commitment; iv. Any other business interests that may result in a conflict of interest; and v. With regards to the candidate for the position of Independent Directors, the NC shall also evaluate the candidate's ability to discharge such responsibilities as expected from Independent Non-executive Directors. As for the appointment of Senior Management, the Human Resource Department focuses on criteria including character, integrity, experience, competence and commitment in the assessment of the identified candidates before recommending them to the designated Executive Director(s) for approval.

In identifying candidates for appointment of directors, the board does not solely rely on recommendations from existing board members, management or major shareholders. The board utilises independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.

If the selection of candidates was based on recommendations made by existing directors, management or major shareholders, the Nominating Committee should explain why these source(s) suffice and other sources were not used.

Application	: Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	 On appointment of new Director, the Board and Nomination Committee ("NC") are guided by the following process and procedures: Nomination of prospective candidate by Board members or major shareholder; Evaluation by NC based on the criteria set out in the Directors' Fit and Proper Policy; Recommendation for Board's consideration and approval if candidate is found suitable; and Board's deliberation and decision. The Board may also consider sourcing candidates via independent consultant. During the financial year, Dato' Jin Kee Mou was appointed to the Board which followed the procedures stated in (i) to (iv) above. The NC opined that this process provides an adequate basis to source for suitable candidates to fill Board positions.
